All about the location

Rosignano Marittimo is a town in the province of Livorno, whose historic center is located on a hill, about 6 kilometers from the sea. But the town is nonetheless a popular seaside destination, especially among Tuscans, since it includes the hamlets of Chioma, Castiglioncello, Rosignano Solvay, Vada and Mazzanta, all 5 of which face the sea and have a certain appeal. Of these, Chioma is the most northerly and in some ways the wildest, Castiglioncello and Vada are undoubtedly the two most famous and touristy resorts, although Rosignano Solvay has on its side the very special White Beaches, a Caribbean beach because of the colors of the sand and water.
