Tout sur l'emplacement

Zuiderwoude is a quintessential Dutch village located in the municipality of Waterland, between Monnickendam and Broek in Waterland. Known for its narrow lanes, historic farmhouses, and picturesque wooden homes, the village is surrounded by scenic polders, lakes, and canals. It's an ideal spot for those who value the peace of rural living with the conveniences of Amsterdam nearby. The local primary school, "De Overhaal," also features a beautifully maintained school garden, open to the entire village community. Just 100 metres from the house, there is a swimming jetty on the Kerk Ae. The water is suitable for swimming in summer and ice skating in winter, as well as for paddleboarding and canoeing. It provides direct access to the water and the surrounding nature of the Waterland area.
